Statement of intent

At Inclusive Schools Trust, our Heads and staff work hard to build a strong relationship with parents to help create a stimulating learning environment that continues from school to home, providing all pupils with the opportunity to achieve to the best of their ability.

For clarity, at Inclusive Schools Trust, the term Head will incorporate the titles of Executive Head, Partnership Head and Head of School.

To create a welcoming and safe learning environment, a specifically designed set of rules regarding behaviour and conduct is in place which parents are expected to act in accordance with. In addition, staff expectations are clearly communicated through the Trust-wide Staff Handbook, Trust and school policies and procedures and the individual school's Code of Conduct document.

All staff members have the right to work without fear of violence or abuse; therefore, physical attacks, threatening behaviour, and abusive or insulting language towards staff members, trustees, visitors, pupils or other parents may result in individuals being removed from the premises.

This document outlines the manner in which parents are expected to act whilst on our school premises, as well as detailing the type of behaviour that will not be tolerated.

- 3.2. Parents will raise concerns regarding another parent's behaviour or conduct directly with their child's class teacher or the Head and will not approach the parent themselves.
- 3.3. Instances of parents displaying inappropriate behaviour will be managed in a variety of ways, depending on the severity of the situation.
- 3.4. When a parent has behaved inappropriately, they will be invited to a meeting by the Head to discuss their behaviour and to attempt to resolve the issue.
- 3.5. Where this initial meeting is not sufficient to resolve the issue, the Head, in collaboration with other staff and relevant agencies, will consider what further action may be required. This action, depending on the situation, could include the following:
  - Barring the parent from the school premises

- Contacting the police
  - Seeking legal redress through the courts
  - Restricting the parent's channels of communication to the school, e.g. no longer allowing the parent to send emails to a staff member directly
  - Reporting content the parent has posted online to the website's administrator
  - Referring the case to children's social worker or Children's Services, where the behaviour indicates that the parent poses a risk to children
- 3.6. Any child protection and safeguarding concerns will be addressed in accordance with the Trust's Safeguarding incorporating Child Protection Policy.
- 3.7. The school reserves the right to escort anyone off the premises who is displaying aggressive or disruptive behaviour.
- 3.8. The police may be contacted to provide advice on managing an incident or to assist in the removal of an individual from the premises, where necessary.
- 3.9. The police will be contacted where a parent is being violent or has committed assault, or where the event has caused harm to an individual.
- 3.10. If a parent has been previously barred from the premises, or has exceeded their implied access to the premises and is causing a disturbance, the police will be contacted to remove the individual from the premises.
- 3.11. If concerns are raised in relation to a parent's appearance or dress, personal factors will be taken into consideration, on a case-by-case basis, when addressing the concern.
- 3.12. If a parent persistently displays unacceptable and inappropriate behaviour, this may result in them being barred from the school premises, in line with section 5 of this policy.

- 4.4. If a parent persistently or consistently behaves inappropriately on the school site, or there is a one-off incident of extremely inappropriate behaviour, the school reserves the right to bar this individual from the school site.

4.5. The school will either:

- Bar the parent temporarily, until the parent has had the opportunity to formally present their side.
- Inform the parent that they intend to bar them and invite them to present their side.

4.6. The Head will send a letter to the parent, informing them of the following information:

- The nature of the bar, i.e. if they are temporarily barred pending their representation or if they must present their side before the decision to bar can be made

4.7. The decision of the Head to bar the parent will be reviewed by the CEO.

4.8. The CEO will take account of any representations made by the parent and decide whether to confirm or lift the bar.

4.9. The parent will be notified in writing of the decision to uphold or lift the bar.

5.10 If the decision is confirmed, the parent will be notified in writing, explaining:

- How long the bar will be in place.
- When the decision will be reviewed.

5.11. Decisions to bar will be reviewed at the end of the agreed timescale, in line with the process outlined above.
